Description: The Shadow Class Super Cruiser is the biggest and most powerful ship the Mandalorian Navy has, with unmatched firepower coupled with a cloaking device, massive shields and an extremely tough hull the Shadow is a terror to anyone facing it in combat. The Mandalorian navy is producing as many of these vessels as it can afford and make a decision that is costing them in flexibility but reaping rewards in sheer firepower. Shadow Cruisers will be found at the head of any Mandalore battlegroup, but they obviously cannot take advantage of their cloaking technology unless they are only working with other cloaked vessels, so they remain uncloaked for the majority of their time at the moment.
