BlasTech DL-25 Light Blaster Pistol

The BlasTech DL-25 light blaster pistol is commonly marketed as a sporting blaster to the general public. While being advertised as a sporting blaster for "hunting, recreational shooting, and various other healthy activities," the DL-25 is unofficially recognized as a legal (in most systems) personal defense weapon. It is quite similar to the DL-18 but only has the stopping power of your average hold-out blaster.
