Equipment D6 / Revnog (Alcoholic beverage)

Name: Revnog
Type: Alcoholic beverage
Edible by: Humans
Price: 3 Credits per glass, 30 Credits per bottle

Description: Revnog was an alcoholic beverage. Pre-Mor Enforcement employees were required to abide by a code of conduct prohibiting the consumption of certain alcoholic beverages such as Revnog and the visit of locations such as brothels. Nevertheless, Kravas Drezzer and fellow sentry guard Verlo Skiff were on shift when they decided to ignore their duties and go to an expensive brothel in Morlana One's Leisure Zone, where the pair drank Revnog at the bar, awaiting one of the brothel hostesses to approach them. Windi, a human who slept with Cassian Andor while he was on Niamos, asked the latter to run buy more Revnog and Peezos when he went out, since they were out of both. Windi specifically asked him to buy green Revnog, since they both liked it.
