Background:

Luxans are a race of warriors who are allied with the Ilanics. They value honor. Some Luxans, such as Ja F'arr, use the traditional weapon, a Qualta blade, which can be turned into a pulse rifle. The Luxans recently signed an alliance with the Peacekeepers as part of Grayza's efforts to unite the worlds against the Scarrens and improve their bargaining position as well as have more people to fight should it come to war.
