

Weapons D6 / Heraali DD44 Destroyer

Heraali DD44 "Destroyer"

The DD44 "Destroyer" is a large and powerful handgun that was originally the standard sidearm of the Heraali Militia. The DD44 is a chrome plated .45 caliber firearm with more stopping power than most heavy blaster pistols. The DD44 has a small ammunition clip in comparison to other firearms of its class but the high rate of fire usually makes up for it.

The DD44 was Heraali Weapons' first venture into the open market with weapons that were once sold exclusively to the Heraali Militia before the arrival of Imperial rule on the planet. Since the Empire's takeover, Heraali has begun selling their specialized weaponry on the open market, paying high tariffs and shipping prices. A handful of Heraali weapons can still be found in the service of the newly reformed Heraali Defense Militia, which was organized under the watchful eye of the local Imperial governor.
