

Weapons D6 / Mestic Munitions M-16c A

Mestic M-16c Covert Operations Weapon

The M-16c automatic rifle was built with stealth and silence in mind. It is the shortest weapon in the M-16 family, with the stock removed to make it more mobile and a second handle near the front for easy wielding. A laser sight is mounted on the bottom of the weapon, just in front of the clip, to give the user a higher chance of hitting his target where he wants.
