Places of Interest

Clan Sornell's house

The Mandalorian Sornell clan owned a temporary house they used for shelter while on the move during the Mandalorian Wars. The home was portable—ideal for their nomadic lifestyle—and could be erected within the span of an hour. After the Mandalorian Neo-Crusaders conquered the planet Halthor, Haarm Sornell and his daughter built the house on the planet's surface for the clan to occupy. That evening, Clan Sornell dined on bile-rat stew together, and slept in the home.

Halthor signal station

This signal station was the target of the Mandalorian Knights during the Essien landing in 3962 BBY.
