Description: Enza Rylanz was a human female who resided on the planet Ghorman's capital city of Palmo during the Imperial Era. She was the daughter of politician and businessman Carro Rylanz and by 3 BBY, was a member of her father's emerging rebel group known as the Ghorman Front. She and her father were members of the Twillery House of Rylanz, which had been in their family for nineteen generations.

After the Ghorman Front secretly placed a listening device in inside Division Chief Syril Karn's office, Enza and her fellow rebels listened to their discreet transmission interceptions. As a result, Rylanz and the other members of the Ghorman Front learned that Karn had been affiliated with the Imperial Security Bureau and had previously been with the Pre-Mor Authority as an officer on Morlana One. Considering him sympathetic to the Ghorman plight, they approached him to recruit him as an ally, unaware that Karn was acting under orders of the Bureau to infiltrate the Front.

During the Ghorman Massacre, Enza's boyfriend Dilan was wounded by the Imperial forces. In retaliation, Enza continued to fire her blaster. However, moments later, Enza was killed by a KX-series security droid, who threw her across Palmo Plaza, causing her to perish from the impact.

Personality and traits
While Enza was diligent and detail-minded, she and her boyfriend Dilan grew increasingly impatient and willing to take risks to ensure Ghorman had a future free of the Galactic Empire.
