The Senate Oath
"Upon my life and honor…"
"For the peace and bounty of all beings…"
"My full allegiance…"
"A galaxy of worlds…"
"A galaxy assembled…"
"An Empire!"

Description: An alien individual served as Oathkeeper of the Imperial Senate of the Galactic Empire during its reign. In 3 BBY, they led a session of the senate in an oath of allegiance during Senate Investiture week, crying out from the Chancellor's Podium in the Imperial Senate Building on the planet Coruscant. The senators present repeated each line of the oath after the Oathkeeper and cheered once it was complete, although Senator Mon Mothma stopped repeating the Oathkeeper's words before they finished. In 2 BBY, the Oathkeeper initiated a Senate meeting, where Mon Mothma spoke out about the Ghorman Massacre, publicly denounced Supreme Chancellor Palpatine and revealed herself as a member of the Rebellion.

Personality and traits

While leading the oath, the Oathkeeper wore brown and golden robes and a piece of golden headwear. They had brown skin and brown eyes.
