

Starships D20 / Outpost Trader Light Fre

Outpost Trader Light Freighter

Daedelus Industries first step into the "trader" market, the Outpost Trader is actually a smuggler vessel. It was designed to allow crimelords to invest into a smuggling ship without the need to modify an existing design. This way they would own the ship and the smuggler for a long time. There is usually one pre-built to anticipate an order. Shipping takes about two months.
