

Vehicles D20 / Neral Neo-456 CAV

RanCorp Compact Assault Vehicle

Utilizing the Neo- unique weapon's project EMP technology Elvar Neral created a compact assault vehicle with serious bite. The vehicle turns a single soldier into an armed assault craft. The features are all regular CAV features except the Neo-456 vehicle EMP generator. It creates a specially polarized EMP shockwave that shuts down any electronic devices without actually damaging the vehicle's systems themselves. These fast craft are favored by scouts and certain Jade Ops groups.
