This is sort of an idea that hit me, and I just sort of started churning out stats over a one-day period. Well, I hope you enjoy, and please send me comments, suggestions on what you like or don't like.

Snowblind Goggles

Type: Eyewear

Cost: 40 credits

Availability: 2

Game Use: +2 Per in snowy environments

This fashionable and functional pair of goggles is a perfect gift for the snowgoer in your family. Whether skiing on the slopes of the Manarai Mountains, or tracking through the wastes of Toola, these goggles will protect even the most sensitive of eyes.

Astronex Aviator's Sunglasses

Type: Eyewear

Cost: 25 credits

Availability: 1

Game Use: Looking really cool

These sunglasses are the height of fashion. Watch the young females fawn and drool over you, the confident pilot of a hundred battles in a hundred systems. These are authentic replicas of Imperial standard issue to TIE pilots in the field. For the ultimate in style and function, choose Astronex.

SoroSuub NeverLost GPS Receiver

Type: Location Device

Cost: 140 credits (satellite costs 5,000)

Availability: 2

Game Use: +2D to Survival, Tracking, and related skills

Never get lost with the NeverLost global positioning service. This device can get you to within .0001 meters of any chosen destination on any serviced planet. The NeverLost system is also functionally compatible with thousands of types of satellites; only requiring space coordinates as a point for triangulation. If you plan on tramping through an abandoned forest, make it a NeverLost today!

Imperial Issue Compass

Type: Location Device

Cost: 10 credits

Availability: 1

Game Use: +1D to survival, tracking, and related skills when used in conjunction with a planetary map. This is the oldest, simplest, and most reliable form of direction finding on any world. It can be used to find the magnetic north of any planet, and when used in conjunction with a planetary map, can be used to find any particular point on said planet.

SpyTron Bionic Ear

Type: Spy Gear

Cost: 500 credits

Availability: 3, R

Game Use: +2D Per, allows eavesdropping for 100m on any line-of-sight conversation.

Ever been dying to know what your neighbor's were saying about you? Well now you can with the new Bionic Ear! This device amplifies any conversation within a 100m range by 30+ decibels! An Imperial permit is required to purchase this equipment, and can be obtained by submitting to IOCI (Imperial Office of Criminal Investigation) for a criminal background check.

Bug-B-Gone Bug Detector

Type: Spy Gear

Cost: 235 credits

Availability: 2, R

Game Use: +2D to Search, +1D to Security for any bug sweep.

Do you need the most protection from potential snoops? This bug detector is perfectly made to detect any bug transmitting from the 2.7Mhz to 890MGhz range. This is especially modulated to detect most subspace and hypercomm frequencies. Bust any snoop with this Bug-B-Gone bug detector. An Imperial permit is required for purchasing this item, which can be obtained with a recommendation from an Imperial official, and an IOCI background check. (Note: Due to racial discrimination proceedings initiated by the Verpine, Bug-B-Gone, inc. has filed bankruptcy, and will produce no new products.)

Luma, Ltd. Weapons Light

Type: Illumination Device

Cost: 55 credits

Availability: 2

Game Use: +2D to Search, Per, -2D to Search, Hide in darkened areas.

Designed especially for CorSec TacForce (Corellian Security Tactical Forces), this eliminates the need for an extra hand for a flashlight, and offers helpful illumination in any direction of your gun. The moulding is especially designed to fit almost all gun designs. If Luma can't fit it onto your gun, we will make a specially moulded mount for you for free!

RSS Throwing Knives

Type: Throwing Knife

Cost: 45 credits for a set of three (includes forearm sheath)

Availability: 1, R, X

Skill: Melee Combat: Throwing Knives

Difficulty: Easy

Damage: Str +1D+1 (max 5D)

This knife is a replica of the original used by the RSS (Republic Security Service), a spy organization of fabled skill in cloak-and-dagger affairs. It saw wide use among the undercover agents as a convenient, powerful, and easily concealable weapon. A little practice will put you into fine fighting trim with a set of these babys. An Imperial permit is required to purchase this device, requiring a background check available at the IOCI.

DewBack Water Storage System

Type: Water Storage System

Cost: 65 credits

Availability: 1

Game Use: +1D Stamina, +2D+1 Survival in wilderness situations.

This is the ultimate in water storage systems. It can hold two days worth of water, and it isn't a canteen! This back-mounted pack fits comfortably under any armor, clothing, or other wearables, and is equipped with the patented Sta-Cool system and a wraparound straw. This model water system is even routable through your survival suit or gas mask! And what a bargain: The original, one, and only DewBack Water Storage System...for only 65 credits!

Heat SEAL Cold Suit

Type: Cold Water Protection Suit

Cost: 140 credits

Availability: 2

Game Use: +2D vs. Cold damage in water

This SEALsuit is the perfect solution to your cold-water needs. It is very popular with arctic fishers in the polar fisheries of Chandrila. Hypothermia is a constant fear in these frigid water areas, and, let's face it, do you really want to spend any amount of time with your best friend naked in a sleeping bag? If not, buy one of these before you next dive off an iceberg.

Surplus Imperial-Issue Camo Cream

Type: Camouflage Paint

Cost: 8 credits per set of three paints

Availability: 1

Game Use: +2 Hide, +1 Sneak If proper pattern and colors are used.

These paints are genuine Imperial surplus, and have been tested in numerous engagements over the Emperor's glorious reign. We sell several basic pattern sets: Jungle, Forest, Desert, Wasteland, Urban, and Subdued Urban. All paints are sold in sets of three, based on the environment pattern. There are also several tubes of paint of various colors, for nonstandard environments, and other uses. (Note: Please do not apply to clothing. It has minimal effectiveness, and only stains your clothes.)

Sand Bags

Type: Temporary Fortification

Cost: 100 credits for set of 1,000

Availability: 1

Game Use: +3D vs. Slugthrowers, +2D vs. Energy, +6D vs. Physical damage

Simple. Sand + Bag = Sandbag = Badass fortification. Lay a defence using these, and they're cheap enough you can leave them when you're done. Take them anywhere, fill them with anything, they're the best, most effective defence your pathetic planetary militia could ever hope for.

BlasTech Sniper Ghillie

Type: Camouflage Clothing System

Cost: 350 credits

Availability: 3

Game Use: +2 Sneak, +2D Hide If proper pattern and colors are used

This is the best sniper ghillie on the market, using a precisely calculated pattern to give the best camouflage possible. If you get caught while using this system, you are inept, and should be summarily shot by any sniper worth his salt.

BlasTech Blaster Cleaning Kit

Type: Cleaning Kit

Cost: 35 credits

Availability: 1

Game Use: +1D to Blaster Repair, if regularly used

This is your standard blaster cleaning kit, with standard solvents, lubes, and picks. Use this thing often, and your illegally modified DL-44 Heavy Blaster Pistol should last a lot longer than that tightwad arms dealer intended it to.

'The Mouse' Stun Gun

Type: Stun Gun

Cost: 115 credits

Availability: 2, R

Skill: Melee Combat: Stun Gun

Difficulty: Very Easy

Damage:

Stun Gun - 2D Stun Damage

Pepper Spray - 1D Stun Damage - -2D PER

if sprayed in eyes

Siren - -2 to all rolls, increases

chance of law enforcement intervention

Power. Sheer Power. That is what you get when you purchase 'the mouse.' This is easily the most powerful stun gun on the market, and is coincidentally the most popular with our female subscribers. If you want to leave an attacker helpless, unconscious, pissing his trousers, unleash The Mouse!

TaggeCo. Police Tactical Baton

Type: Police Baton

Cost: 85 credits

Availability: 3

Skill: Melee Combat: Club

Difficulty: Easy

Damage: Str + 2D (max 7D)

This specially designed law enforcement weapon is perfect for a night on the beat. Springs into action from a diminutive 8cm, it deploys as a full-sized and particularly effective club. Its popularity has even extended to citizens, wishing for protection, because of the lack of need for a permit to carry it.

BlasTech Assault Sling

Type: Blaster Accessory

Cost: 30 credits

Availability: 2

Game Use: Eliminates weapon draw penalty while in use

This simple rig designed by CorSec TacForce is designed to keep your weapon on constant guard. If you are in a small corridor searching for the enemy, this can be handy indeed! Many a TacForce Agent owes their lives to the convenient, simple constancy displayed by this rig. The Imperial Army is already considering integrating it into Commando Stormtrooper armor, and a modified version is in testing with several elite Stormtrooper forces.

Tactical Assault Harness

Type: Rappelling Harness

Cost: 45 credits

Availability: 1

Game Use: 1D to (A) Mountaineering, or Climb

This is a simple, reliable harness designed for urban environment use, and is extremely handy when scaling the face of a twenty-story building. It comes standard issue to Imperial Airmobile Infantry Ops, and is in common use by many other climbers in the galaxy.

SoroSuub Subversion Slingshot

Type: Slingshot

Cost: 50 credits

Availability: 1

Skill: Missile Weapons: Slingshot

Difficulty: Moderate

Damage: Str+2D+2 (max 8D)

Angry citizens around the galaxy unite and kill small game with this small but deadly weapon. It has a rear-fitted arm support for added stability, and an aiming reticle. Be warned, the Slingshot is a fairly difficult weapon to master, and no guarantees are made as to your own accuracy.
