

Equipment D6 / Thermal cape

Name: Thermal cape

Type: Survival Blanket

Cost: 5 Credits

Availability: 1

Game Notes: Adds 2D to resist the effects of cold.

Description: A thermal cape, also known as a "thermal wrap," was a poncho that helped its wearer to retain his or her body heat in cold conditions and was typically included in most survival packs.

In addition to being worn, a thermal cape could be used as an impromptu blanket or shelter. A combination of alcomase and Vectinian spider's silk was commonly used in the manufacture of thermal capes.
