Description: Davan, designated DC1, was a human male who served as a New Republic soldier and the sole crewmember on one of their prison ships. When a team of mercenaries infiltrated the starship, they found Davan at the control room. In the ensuing confrontation, Davan pointed his blaster pistol at the mercenaries and held up a tracking beacon. Xi'an, though, threw a dagger at him, killing him. Although the soldier was able to activate the beacon, calling in a New Republic squadron.

In 9 ABY, Davan was serving as a soldier of the New Republic, using the designation "DC1". He was the sole crewmember of a prison transport that was guarded by New Republic security droids. However, it was boarded by a team of mercenaries, who sought to rescue the prisoner Qin. After fighting a number of security droids, they arrived at the control room where Davan was based. The soldier sprung from his seat and aimed his blaster pistol at the four mercenaries. Despite him telling them to put down their blasters, the mercenaries slowly surrounded him.

Davan held up a homing beacon, which if activated, could call in reinforcements from the New Republic. While three of the mercenaries wished to kill him, though, the bounty hunter known as "the Mandalorian" opposed the idea. The Mandalorian argued with Mayfeld and the bounty hunter drew blasters on him and the Devaronian Burg, who agreed with Mayfeld. The other mercenary, Xi'an, then threw a dagger at Davan, killing him immediately. Despite this, the soldier had activated the beacon, summoning a New Republic X-wing squadron.

Personality and traits

Davan was a human male with light skin, brown hair and blue eyes. He was frightened upon seeing the Mandalorian and his team enter the control room, ordering them to drop their blasters but to no avail. When they got closer to him, Davan swiftly revealed a tracking beacon as a threat. The Mandalorian attempted to reason with him, asking for his name. Davan, stammering, stated his name during the tense standoff, but was ultimately killed by Xi'an.

Equipment

Davan wore a blue uniform with a New Republic insignia on the left shoulder. He wore white shoes which resembled those of an Imperial Stormtrooper. Mayfeld, a former Imperial Sharpshooter, said they matched Davan's belt, which displayed an Imperial officer's disk upon the buckle. Davan also wore a white helmet with a black tinted visor and Davan's designation, "DC1," in Aurebesh on the side. He possessed an A-180 blaster and a distress beacon.
