Description: Kloris was a human male who was a driver for Senator Mon Mothma on Coruscant in 5 BBY. He was secretly a deep undercover Imperial Security Bureau spy tasked with monitoring Mothma's activities as well as keeping a close eye to her family and personally reporting on his findings to his handler, Supervisor Blevin.

Biography

Kloris accompanied Mothma when she visited Luthen Rael's Galactic Antiquities and Objects of Interest where she claimed she was buying a present for her husband, Perrin Fertha, for his Day of Days, though she really wanted to talk to Rael about their rebel activities. Suspecting that Kloris was an Imperial spy sent to watch Mothma, Rael's associate Kleya Marki distracted Kloris by showing him some of the items in the gallery.

The next night, Kloris drove Mothma and Fertha in a speeder to an event when Fertha, after asking his wife for Kloris' name for the second time that day, asked Kloris to take the Expressway. Three days later, following the heist of the Imperial headquarters on Aldhani, Kloris drove a furious Mothma back to the Antiquities & Objects of Interest and stood outside as she pretended to change the gift she had previously bought for her husband; in truth she was there to question Rael of his involvement on the Aldhani incident. Following the end of the conversation, he drove her back home to the Embassy.

A month later Kloris drove Mothma's cousin, Vel Sartha from the Coruscant spaceport to the Embassy and announced her unexpected arrival to Mon. After a couple of days, he waited with Mothma for Perrin to leave a party he was in; after he boarded the airseeder Mothma asked for privacy and he pretended to comply, secretly keeping the driver-passenger comlink open. He overheard her scolding Perrin for losing their money and accusing him of gambling, which Perrin passionately denied. The next day, he reported to his handler, Supervisor Blevin on the ISB Central Office in COMPNOR arcology, and described word for word the conversation he had overheard; the briefing was interrupted by Supervisor Lagret who warned Blevin he was missing the meeting on Anto Kreegyr's attack.
