

Characters D6 / MetaCorp Jumptroopers

MetaCorp Jumptroopers

Only a select few become Jumptroopers, these are often elite Stormtrooper forces that have seen many battles and a lot of training. All Jumptroopers are combat experienced, because surviving combat is the only way to become a jumptrooper.

Jumptroopers wear the advanced Jumptrooper Assault Armor which has a ghastly appearance. Most cringe with fear when they see the armored hulks of Jumptroopers who stand over 7ft tall come raining from the sky, bringing swift and gruesome death with them. The average Jumptrooper prefers close combat weapons, and will often be equipped with power gauntlets or vibro-weapons and a pistol of some sort.

Like their stormtrooper counter-parts, the Jumptrooper's armor is often decorated to fit a certain theme or company. For example, the Screaming Eagle Company of Talorous IV have sky blue armor and a gold eagle with outstretched wings on the breast plate. While the Jungle Fighters of Reed are a deep green with white MC Crests on both shoulder shells.
