

Characters D6 / Galford (Napanese Bud

Galford

Galford is a very rare occurrence in the galaxy, he's an immortal of a non-human race. Almost all other Immortals were/are human. Galford followed the way of the Samurai in what many would call a twisted or even deranged manner. Like all Immortals he was drawn towards the sword and dueling. He trained in the sword and martial arts on Napan for the first 20 or so years of his life, when he was killed in a duel. However he returned to life shortly, and people became afraid of him. Shortly after leaving Napan he encountered his first real duel, against another immortal. Galford began to rise in prominence across the galaxy as an excellent swordsman. However he had been killed several times in duels and other incidents causing his skill to backslide a bit, as well as his confidence. Then the Clone Wars started and Galford went into hiding. He kept a low profile until he heard about the Napanese Shogun Budokai. He decided that the empire was too busy with the Rebellion to still be looking for Jedi and Immortals so he decided he would return to his homeworld and win the Budokai as his own sort of revenge against those who had shunned him over two centuries prior. The combination of his Napanese heritage and Immortality make him an incredibly, and nearly impossible, foe to defeat, however with the rules governing the Budokai it is possible. Galford is incredibly fast and is very skilled with sword and martial arts, the only person to ever duplicate Hanzo's leg throw, although he's altered it slightly. Galford instead warps around at about mid-chest and spins laterally and down, catching them between the ground and his knee. The strength increasing servomotors in his powersuit often make this move very deadly, although it doesn't inherently cause as much damage as Hanzo's move as Hanzo's slams the opponent's HEAD to the ground.

Special abilities:

Jumping: Napanese have incredible leg strength, far surpassing normal humans giving them the ability to jump higher and farther. They get 2D for every 1D put in Climbing/Jumping at character creation, and with an easy Jumping roll they may jump 5 meters vertically.

Agility: Napanese are incredibly nimble and agile. At character creation they gain an extra 2D skill dice to put in either Acrobatics, Dodge, or split up between the two.

Toughness: For an unexplainable reason, Napanese are tougher than usual and can retain consciousness and keep fighting after a human would have fallen over dead. Damage Chart is as Follows

Damage	Effect	Penalty
0-3	Stunned	-1D for this round and next
0-3(again)	Stunned x2	-2D for this round and next (this is only if both stunned occur in the same round)
4-8	Wounded	-1D
4-8(again)	Wounded x2	-2D
9-12	Wounded x3	-3D
4-8*(again)	Wounded x4	-4D (*:If they take a 'wounded' level again they take an increase of the wound level, if it's a stunned, it's just -1D extra temporarily. If it's more, see below)
9-12*	Incapitated	Lose consciousness for 10D rounds
13-15	Mortally Wounded	-5D; half move
4-8*(again)	Mortally Wounded x2	-6D (*: see previous *)
9-12(again)	Incapitated	See Above.
13-15(again)	Mortally Wounded x3	-7D; 1/4 Move
16+	Critically Wounded	-8D; Move is reduced to 1
16+(again)	Dead	Dead

Immortality: Immortals have a special connection to the force that feeds him life force in times of need. Immortals may be killed through normal means, but unless his head is removed from his body, then he will awaken in 1D rounds with all wounds healed in 3D rounds. Any force sensitive character taking the life of an immortal will acquire this acute connection to the force and become immortal through a violent surge of force energy. Disintegration, explosion, decapitation and anything else which more or less severs the head or destroys the body can render an Immortal dead (this is largely a GM call).

Absorbition: When an Immortal takes another Immortal's life he/she receives all of the fallen Immortal's character points, force points and dark side points through a violent force explosion (similar to the force explosion experienced when Emperor Palpatine first died).

Force sense: Immortals can sense when another is nearby (usually within 20 meters) and sometimes Jedi Knights may give off the same signal making an ignorant immortal believe that the Jedi is an immortal.
