

Vehicles D20 / Neral Neo-Y10 Riot Co

RanCorp Riot Control Airspeeder

The Neo-Y10 is great for riot control because it can swoop in use its weapons then swoop back out of range. Following the Neo-Y series tradition the vehicle has weapons for riot control, the tear gas grenades and stokhli spray cannons, as well as a blaster cannon for more dangerous missions. The Neo-Y series doesn't have to be just for riot control but any defense at all. The one downside to the Y10 is that it's rather expensive.
