Description: Schmood was a male Yuzzum who worked for Grappa the Hutt sometime after the Battle of Endor.

Sometime after the Battle of Endor, Schmood heard his master calling for help. He went to his master, Grappa was locked up. While Schmood was trying to free him, Grapa asked what had happened to Sol Mon, a follower of his. He answered that Sol Mon had left his palace, because of the Black Sun. When Schmood opened the door Grappa asked him why he stayed in the palace, Schmood said that it was his duty. Grappa said he had a question, and then he slapped Schmood in the dungeon with his tail, closing the door and then complaining that Schmood had been too late. According to Grappa Schmood should have saved him when the rebels were still in his palace. Grappa left Schmood trapped.
