

RPGGamer.org Characters D6 / Zebes (Giant Brain)

Zebes

Zebes is the giant brain that lives in a transparisteel nutrient tank at the center of 'Brain Station' and is the reason for the nickname. He has the power to psychically link up into electronics and reprogram and issue commands. This allows him to control the station all by himself. He can also use this power to give commands and override programming within a droid without every touching the droid. Zebes is a plotter and a manipulator and serves Gwirekon well, being the only one in the pirate gang who's ever actually met the mysterious pirate leader.
