Lumnar Shock-net Rifle

Lumnar Industries' Shock-net technology is a new concept to the galaxy. Rather than a stun net, it creates a net totally out of energy with a stun charge built in. The net spreads out over a short range in a spreading arc. It will wrap around any targets it ensnares and stuns them down and sticks to them. The rifle carries a rgeater range than the pistol and it's nets are stronger.
