Description: Sateen Vestswe was a Human male from Alderaan. He was Bail Organa's loyal bodyguard. The Vestswe family had served the royal family for over forty generations. Sateen was trained by Giles Durane, the "Weapons Master".

Biography

The Human male named Sateen Vestswe was born on the Core World of Alderaan during the last decades of the Galactic Republic. For over forty generations before him, his family had dutifully served the Royal House of Alderaan, and he was no exception to that tradition. He became both a senatorial aide and a bodyguard to Prince Consort Bail Prestor Organa, who represented the Alderaan sector in the Galactic Senate of the Republic. In order to become a crack shot with a hold-out blaster, Vestswe trained under Giles Durane, a good-hearted idealist who was known as the "Weapons Master." Vestswe followed Senator Organa on the galactic capital of Coruscant during the Clone Wars, a three-year conflict that raged on from 22 to 19 BBY, under the rule of Supreme Chancellor Palpatine.

At the end of the Clone Wars, Palpatine let his true colors show. He established a new, autocratic regime and decreed that all Jedi should be massacred. Being a Jedi sympathizer, Bail Organa decided to help two survivors, Jedi Masters Yoda and Obi-Wan Kenobi, reach their ruined headquarters and recalibrate the homing signal telling all Jedi to return home because the war was over. Vestswe and the rest of Organa's aides accompanied the senator and his Jedi friends. After landing on Coruscant, the group encountered a Senate Guard who tried to take custody of the Jedi, which Master Kenobi prevented by using a mind trick on the weak-minded guard.

Personality and traits

Vestswe was a fair-skinned man with blue eyes and brown hair. By 19 BBY, he sported a full beard.
