

Name: Light Claws

Scale: Character

Skill: Lightsaber; Light Claws

Availability: 4, X

Difficulty: Moderate

Damage: 5D

Description: Similar in design to the Jedi Wrist Saber, Light Claws takes this idea a step further by adding extra blades which help the weapon to do more damage. However the short blades may do as much damage as a full lightsaber, but they are nowhere as good in combat, making it one difficulty level higher to parry attacks with them due to their short length. This has not stopped the weapon achieving popularity with Dark Jedi and Sith Assassins, who love its small size, the fact it can be hidden easily and most of all the surprise on an opponents face when the blades pop into existence from the darkness of the Assassins sleeve.
