Description: The Charger Blaster Pistol is an older design from BlasTech, and while capable of impressive range and punch, the weapon is unwieldy (requires 2 actions to draw instead of 1) and has a poor ammunition supply. The advantage that has made this weapon sell so well however is the wrist brace which helps the user hit distant targets with incredible accuracy (+1D to skill for targets at medium and long range), also the top mounted macrobinocular sight is also a great help when aiming this powerful blaster.
