Description: Much like the Empire that defeated it, the Trade Federation produced a huge variety of different combat vehicles as it attempted to find the most economic and deadly, it also seemed to relish giving these vehicles ridiculous acronyms another thing in common with the Empire. The SPAT is one of the many Speeder Bike clones that the Trade Federation created as a scouting platform for their Droid Armies. They eventually settled on the STAP, but these were destroyed in their thousands during the Clone Wars. However the earlier SPAT had been mothballed, and were stored in their thousands in Trade Federation warehouses across the galaxy. When the Empire siezed these warehouses, the sold off the contents in an attempt to recoup some of the immense cost of the Clone Wars. The SPAT can actually be used comfortably by a biological being unlike the STAP, and is still a fast and dangerous speeder bike which can be found in the more dangerous reaches of the galaxy.
