Creatures D6 / Shiverpede (Flying Insectoid)

Name: Shiverpede
Classification: Insectoid
Skin color: Orange and yellow
Distinctions: Two pairs of wings, Two scythe-shaped claws
Point of origin: Koboh

Dexterity: 3D
Perception: 2D
Strength: 3D

Special Abilities

Scythe-shaped Claws: Shiverpedes have two Scythe-shaped Claws which can slash for Str+1D damage.

Springing Attack: Shiverpedes use their wings and Scythe-shaped claws to make leaping attacks, this allows them to move double their walking speed and strike an target for Str+2D damage.

Move: 14 (flying), 8 (walking)

Description: Shiverpedes, commonly known as springers by locals, were a species of winged insectoid residing on the planet Koboh. It had two pairs of wings and two arms tipped with scythe-shaped claws, as well as orange and yellow skin. Shiverpedes would blend into their environment, springing at foes who crossed their path. Shiverpedes hunted in small packs, but nested in large groups. They would perform intricate mating rituals that involved their sharpened forceps.

Stats by FreddyB, Descriptive Text from WookieePedia.
Image copyright LucasArts.
Any complaints, writs for copyright abuse, etc should be addressed to the Webmaster FreddyB.