Special Abilities:

Claws: Nephrans arms end in large claws, which do not allow them fine manipulation, but do Str+2D damage when used in combat.

Facial Tentacles: Instead of fingers, Nephran use their facial tentacles as manipulators, this does mean that vehicle controls must be modified for their use or they receive a -2D to Mechanical skills.

Long Life: Nephrans are an extremely long lived species, this gives them access to the large amount of knowledge they have been exposed to over their lives, giving them a +2D to all Scholar skills.

Story Factors:

Aquatic: Nephran are aquatic creatures, living in water as easily as they do in air, but long periods in dry atmospheres make them feel uncomfortable.

Move: 9/11

Description: The Nephrans were a sentient crustacean species that were native to the water-rich planet Nepotis. Therm Scissorpunch was a member of this species.

Biology and appearance

The Nephran were a species of olive green or orange colored skin and black eyes. The Nephrans had claws, tentacles attached to their head, and clawed feet.

History

The Nephran hailed from the water-rich planet Nepotis. Besides this, not much was known about them or their homeworld.

Nephrans in the galaxy

Acantha was a female Nephran who lived during the High Republic Era who was a member of the Norikus gang lead by a male Octeroid. Therm Scissorpunch was a male Nephran also active during the High Republic who lived into the Imperial Era. Scissorpunch was known to frequent the card tables on the planet Vandor.

One Nephran frequented the holotactics table run by Bhima Ook and Tulli Mu at Pyloon's Saloon on the planet Koboh, witnessing Jedi Knight Cal Kestis defeat several local residents at the hologame.
