Description: Devon Izara was a Force-sensitive Twi'lek female who was trained as a Jedi Padawan by Jedi Master Eeko-Dio Daki and later sought revenge on the Galactic Empire for the murder of her master, accepting training in the ways of the dark side of the Force by the former Sith Lord and crime lord Maul.

Following the rise of the Galactic Empire, she and her master hid on the planet Janix. Between 17 BBY and around 13 BBY, Izara was captured by the world's police force after attempting to get food for her master. While jailed at the police headquarters, the girl was discovered by Maul, who took the unwilling Padawan in his escape from the facility.

Personality and traits

Izara was an angsty and savvy Padawan whose yearning to take action sometimes clashed with her master's desire to stay hidden. She struggled to find her footing with the rise of the Empire and frequently had to figure out right and wrong, possessing some innocence while doing so. The girl stood at 1.51 meters, and had pink skin, pale green eyes, and a series of purple striped markings on her lekku.

Powers and abilities

The Twi'lek was Force-sensitive and well-trained. Izara was also a skilled fighter able to defend herself with her lightsaber when she needed to, using mostly Soresu and Ataru.

Equipment

She used a silver and black lightsaber that emitted a blue blade. While on Janix, Izara wore a blue shirt with white sleeves and green shoulder pads, a gray belt, light blue pants with tan stripes down the side, brown boots, brown head wrappings, and a tan cloak.
