Background:
Samantha Grimm is a civilian scientist, who has specialised in anthropology, archaeology and genetics.

She was born in Los Angeles, California.
Samantha Grimm is the twin sister of Reaper (a k a John Grimm). After the death of their parents the two become estranged and have only recently begun to rebuild their relationship.
She was an anthropologist at the station near Olduvai Gorge, Tanzania, and has reconstructed a complete skeleton of a humanoid alien woman huddled protectively over her child.
Due to her high levels of skill and hard work she has been invited to work on the Stargate Program.
