Equipment D6 / Neogen Assault Trooper Bod

Neogen Assault Trooper Body Armor with Uniform

Most commanly found with the body armor is the Neogen uniform. The dark slate grey fatiuges are worn under the body armor. Because of this, the name of the trooper is engraved onto his armor, above the right breast. The uniform also constits of a black vacume tight piece of rubber worn on both the knees and the elbows. Straped to the pieces of rubber are Knee and elbow protectors that are made of hard plastic and a thin layer of durasteel over the top. Acompanied with the armour, knee and elbow protectors is a fine pair of waterproof boots. Also another special feature is the vacume sealed cargo pockets on the pants. They are sealed with an inner layer of rubber. The pockets have a zipper and can be covered by a rubber flap that has a special material at the end that attaches to the flap and the base pocket.
