Equipment D20 / Mithryl Fast-Attack Armor

Mithryl Fast-Attack Armor

The Mithryl Fast Attack armor is a very High Tech looking suit of armor and is chock full of various little gadgets. The only part of the wearer left exposed is the nose and mouth. Their helmet has a thin black visor that goes across their eyes with a built in tracking and targeting packaage. A weapon can be specialy linked to this helmet with the installemnt of a small chip that requires a moderate blaster repair roll. A jetpack on the back provides fast transportation while advanced servomotors and hydraulics enhance the user's strength and provide ample protection against enemy weapons.
