Equipment D20 / SATAL Arms Flash Pistol

SATAL Arms Flash Pistol

SATAL Arms began devlopment of a new series of energy weapons capable of pnetrating enemy armour. Wioth the rise in popularity of personal body armour, especialy powerful Akira Co suits, there was a high deman for armour penetration. What SATAL developed became known as 'flash' weapons. These uniqe weapons use a layered cocoon of energy rather than a solid bolt. This allows it to penetrate deeper, while maintaining an even stopping power through-out. The flash pistol is a small pistol with an easily managed grip. It uses special 50 shot power packs and easily fits in one hand.
