Background:
British Army Special Air Service Corporal Finn Younger was born in Scotland, Great Britain.
He has recently come back from being assigned to the US Navy SEALs.
Blending in with the countryside. That’s what Corporal Finn Younger does when he dons his camouflaged Ghillie suit and turns sniper.
Like many of the SAS he doesn't make use of the SA80 and changes his weapons depending on the operation.

He likes the Accuracy International AW/L96A1, probably due to years of familiarity and practice with it. He is often issued with a sniper rifle for missions to provide covering fire for his SG team.
