Equipment D20 / BlasTech DL-18 Special

BlasTech DL-18 Special

Ever been in such a dire position during a fire fight that all you wanted was a repeating blaster so that you could mow your way out but Imperial and New Republic restrictions are too strict for you to carry one? Well BlasTech has the answer one more time. The BlasTech DL-18 Special is the galaxy's first fully repeating blaster pistol.

While slightly less powerful than the standard DL-18, the Special offers a much greater rate of fire which more or less makes up for the loss in the stopping power.

While repeating blasters are typically restricted to only military outfits and the like, the BlasTech DL-18 Special is easily passed off as nothing more than a standard DL-18, thus allowing a user to carry it with only a simple blaster pistol permit.
