Background:
Tok’ra Undercover Operative Cypher is a true blending of symbiosis, her host is a mathematical phenomenon.
Her host grew up on a world populated by one of the Olympian based Goa’uld.
Cypher is not the symbiotes original name, but a nickname given to her because of her extraordinary ability to crack any encryption given enough time. Since she is aware of and helped construct most of the Tok’ra encryption, it would be a disaster if she fell into the hands of the Goa’uld.
