Equipment D20 / BlasTech A285 Sniper Rifle

BlasTech A285 Sniper Rifle

The BlasTech A285 is a variant of the famed BlasTech A280 that features a much tighter bolt that increases the stopping power and range while the increased energy output limits the number of shots to only fifty. A handful of snipers in the Alliance Special Forces and Alliance Army have been issued the weapon, but due to a lack in supply due to the high cost, the A285 will never make it to be a standardized rifle in the Rebel Alliance.
