Equipment D20 / BlasTech T-10 Blaster Rifle

BlasTech T-10 Blaster Rifle

The BlasTech T-10 blaster rifle is a somewhat older model blaster rifle that predates the infamous BlasTech E-11 blaster rifle by several years. The T-10 features an elongated barrel with a fixed stock (as opposed to the folding and retractable stocks on many rifles and carbines) that eventually gave rise to the BlasTech T-21 light repeating blaster and then the BlasTech T-25 medium repeating blaster.

The BlasTech T-10 isn't very common in this modern New Republic galaxy, although many can be found in use by a wide variety of corporations, many of which belong to the Corporate Sector Authority.
