

Equipment D20 / Adelphi Heavy Wrist-

Adelphi Heavy Wrist-Blaster

Adelphi started marketing Wrist Blasters to Bounty Hunters and assassins. The idea of the weapons was to give them the ability to fire a weapon while keeping their hands relatively free. The blaster is fired by flexing your wrist a certain way. It also is fairly easily concealed from visual inspection. The WB-8 offers just slightly more stopping power than the standard DL-44 however it has a very slow fire rate. And with only twenty-five shots to a power pack, every shot has to be made to count.
