Background:
Nebari are a race of people who value conformity over all else. They mind cleanse their own people of their negative thoughts or emotions, as well as aliens, making them feel remorse for their past misdeeds and promoting the belief that everything should be done for the greater good (which in their opinion is the Nebari Establishment). Thoughts and actions are strictly controlled, and those who don't conform are punished or sent to a non-conformist colony. They were responsible for the destruction of the pride of the Peacekeeper fleet, the Zelbinion, over 100 cycles ago. They have infected countless thousands of their own people and sent them out into the galaxy in order to spread the infection to other species. This infection has a specific trigger and the time is growing near for its activation, and when it does, a significant portion of the galaxy will fall into the Nebari's hands. Neri, brother of Chiana, is one of the leaders of the resistance movement against the Establishment which is, among other things, trying to stop this from happening.

Klara is a believer in living life to the full and is driven to explore all that is generally banned by her people. She was once a member of the Resistance, but grew bored with it and decided to explore space by herself.

She occasionally has contact with Ralin's newly formed Smugglers Guild, for who she undertook a number of information-gathering missions.
