Equipment D20 / Adelphi SB-40

Adelphi SB-40

The SB-40 was adelphi's attempt to rbeak VerdanTech's growing strangelhold on the firearm industry. The SB-40 is a good tactical pistol that is slightly lacking in firepower. It has a 15 round 9mm clip and an underbarrel glow-rod. It has a decent discharge rate and every round fires smoothyl, no scoring inside the barrel at all. Recoil is also quite low, and this pistol is very light weight. That makes it an easy to use and draw weapon.
