Equipment D20 / Adelphi SB-50

Adelphi SB-50

The sB-50 has a somewhat sleeker design and longer barrel. It has a shorter clip but manages to pack a slgihtly fiercer punch. It was made for public release but that ended up getting restricted heavily. It has built in safety mechanisms and mechanical locks to prevent accidental discharge. Unfortuinately this pistol can be seen in the hands of street-punks many times.
