Weapons D6 / VerdanTech VT-5 Pistol

VerdanTech VT-5 Pistol

The VT-5 was designed for legal agencies once again but before they could offer the weapon out, it was leaked that it was crafted for hitmen. It turned out Mestic Munitions had found out about the weapon and they 'leaked' the info to kill the deal.
In a panic VerdanTech protested that it was not true and still got a few contracts from planetary enforcement agencies but lost all the big sector wide groups. However, criminal organizations came to VerdanTech with contracts as well thanks to that leak and VerdanTech secretly made alot of money from selling the weapons to organized crime for their hitmen.
The weapon is specialy balanced and machined out precisely making it an expensive but very accurate weapon in the hands of a skilled marksman.
