Merr-Sonn K-M12

Merr-Sonn Munitions has long been famous for its fine line of blasters and other energy weaponry. The K-series M12 automatic slugthrowing rifle was one of Merr-Sonn's first ventures into the slugthrowing weapons market.

The Merr-Sonn K-M12 is a large caliber fully automatic rifle which was originally designed off of the semi-automatic K-M11 which was marketed as a hunter's best friend. The K-M12 was only sold in limited numbers due to the fact that slugthrowing weapons are fairly outdated and usually do not keep up with modern day energy weapons.
