Mestic AR-17 Sniper Rifle

With the discontinuation of the M-series, Mestic needed a reliable new sniper rifle in their new AR-series. The AR-17 design was more than what Mestic had hoped for. It's range and power were greater than any sniper rifle that they had ever constructed. It is still fairly rare due to the the great numbers of Model 16m and Model 21 sniper rifles still circulating on the market.
