

Weapons D6 / Mestic Munitions AR-25 H

Mestic AR-25 Heavy Assault Rifle

The AR-25 is a massively large machine gun that measures nearly a meter and a half in length and weighs as much as any repeating blaster. The ammunition is chain fed to the weapon via a belt that is normally guided into the weapon by an assistant.

The AR-25 performs much of the same role in the firearms department as the E-Web does in the blaster department with one exception: the AR-25 can be carried as a personal weapon.
