Starships D20 / RanCorp HardEdge-class Sta

HardEdge Star Yacht

Despite her name HardEdge-class Yachts are rather soft streamlined ships. It's RanCorp's first ship that meets civilian standards. It has only a weak laser cannon and even weaker shields. It's silver streamlined hull makes it look very glamourous and highlights the angularity. It has incredibly powerful engines and one of the fastest hyperdrives in the galaxy. The ship is also incredibly agile and quiet making for smooth running. The inside is very lush with nice quarters, a holonet access system a dinning area, a conference area and even a central family room type area. The ship is very stylish and quite popular among the richer denizens of the galaxy.
