Starships D20 / Eagle Mark III Fighter

Eagle Mark III Fighter

The mark 3 Eagle differs from the Long-Range version in that it has slightly better armour, more cockpit space and a higher-powered laser. The Eagle is made by Lornonar: the company famous for its Strike cruisers, not its star-fighters: in the Eagle they have created a jack-of-all-trades starfighter which fails to excel in any one field. Though this has not stopped the Eagle (in all its versions) from becoming a minor hit with would-be fighter-jocks.
