Background on the Bear Totem Warrior

Raven is a Cheyenne Indian, and studied under the shaman of his tribe in his youth. The Cheyenne have long known the existence of the Adversary and they trained their shamans from birth to battle the entity. The current Cheyenne shaman, Raven was trained from birth by his predecessor for battle to come. However, Raven rejected his tribal duties and left for The Gulf War, where he served in the US armed forces. When his squad was wiped out, Raven lashed out with his improperly controlled magics, tearing a hole in reality and unleashing a stream of demons. He served in Desert Storm, where he lost his right leg. Sinking into a suicidal depression, Raven tried unsuccessfully to kill himself. He later designed artificial limbs to replace those he had lost. He also decided not to use his mystical abilities during this time, for reasons he has chosen not to reveal.

Quote: "You really need to have every square inch of your ass kicked." Roleplaying the Bear Totem Warrior

Bear is a large, dangerous looking man and knows it. He knows everyone else knows it too, and thus does not have to talk too much. He lets body language do most of his talking. Brute force is his favored approach to problem solving. He does not make wisecracks during a fight and is not a particularly showy fighter, preferring to dispatch his opponent as quickly and effectively as possible.

He holds a grudge for years and will go to great lengths to correct injustices done to him.
