Background: A'den Skirata, originally known as Null-12, also known as N-12, was one of the six surviving Null-class Advanced Recon Commandos. Like the other Null ARCs, he was named and trained by Kal Skirata. A'den was also the only one of the Null ARC's who was a sergeant and not an officer. He chose this out of reverence to his training Sergeant, Kal Skirata, who formally adopted him in Mandalorian tradition.

In 21 BBY, he was sent to Gaftikar along with Omega Squad, to help train the local Gaftikari resistance. After Order 66, he came back to Kyrimorut with Nyreen Vollen and Yayax Squad to meet with the rest of Clan Skirata.

A'den means "wrath" or "rage" in Mando'a

A'den was different from the other Nulls; he smiled, a fact less likely found amongst his brothers, though he did care about his clone brothers. A'den was very cynical of Palpatine and the Republic, and was annoyed at the latter's reluctance to attack the CIS at the heart. Like the rest of his Null brothers, he harbored a deep hatred of Kaminoans, especially Ko Sai. When he was a boy he used to narrowly miss hitting them with blaster bolts from his position hanging from a high ceiling, causing much mirth from his brothers.

Shortly before the formation of the Galactic Empire (or possibly earlier), A'den met and befriended Nyreen Vollen, who believed clones should have the same rights and lifespans as ordinary beings. Nyreen, or "Ny", would later aid the Skirata clan by bringing deserter clones to Mandalore to begin their new lives.
