Charcter Bio - Walon Vau was one of the Mandalorian mercenaries recruited by Jango Fett to train the Clone Army. He belonged to the group known as the Cuy'val Dar. The armor he wore was colored black. Walon Vau was born into wealth, the son of the Count of Gesl, a domineering brute and religious fanatic.

As a youth Vau was beaten mercilessly by his father, but not all of the emotional feeling was removed. When Vau was a young man he attempted to join the Imperial Irmenu Navy when his father was an Admiral but was told by his father that he was not good enough to join, possibly resulting in Vau's leaving his family and home to join the Mandalorians. After Vau became a Mandalorian, he was disowned by his family and his rightful inheritance was passed to his cousin.

Vau trained the commandos in Delta Squad, and gave RC-1262 his nickname ("Scorch") after an ordnance accident that left them both without eyebrows for a time. Walon was extremely violent, once siccing his pet strill, Lord Mirdalan, on a young Ordo. Also on Kamino, he allowed Mird to hunt which resulted in the death of a "menial" and "genetically inferior" Kaminoan, causing Vau to feel much the same way about the Kaminoans as Skirata. Like Kal Skirata, he believed that the clones he trained should be brought up to be Mandalorian warriors. However, he took a different approach. Instead of treating the clones like sons, he taught the Mando way through discipline, and often violence. To teach his clones to be tough, he would often pit one against the other, for melee or even live-fire exercises. He gave them a choice: fight each other or fight him. Only one clone ever chose Vau, and Vau left the trooper with a scar on his face. Skirata also believed his men had to know pain to be able to learn how to withstand it, and withstand interrogation. this task Vau took upon himself, he wouldn't allow anyone other than himself to harm his soldiers, and he did it for their own good, to make them tougher and stronger. It was for this training philosophy, among other things, that caused a deep-seated hatred between Skirata and Vau, though unknown to Skirata, Vau greatly cared for the clones he trained, merely showing it in other ways. Whether or not one agreed with his methods, Vau had an excellent record; after a year of the Clone Wars, only three of the commandos he trained had died, as opposed to fourteen of Skirata's. This he blamed on the Galactic Republic for using commandos like normal soldiers in the Battle of Geonosis. Vau was not without sympathy, as after the death of Jango Fett, he felt sorry for Boba Fett and believed Boba would turn into the hardest, most bitter and messed up shabuir around.

Upon completing his contract as a Cuy'val Dar, Vau returned to civilian life. However, he was recruited by Kal Skirata in his black ops mission to destroy the CIS terrorist cells operating on Coruscant. He was selected due to his excellent interrogation skills. This mission put him back in close proximity to Atin, the commando who chose to fight him. Slashed in his face by Vau, Atin had vowed to kill Vau one day, but he set aside his hatred temporarily for the sake of the op.

In the final showdown between the terrorists and Skirata's men, Vau teamed up with Jedi Knight Etain Tur-Mukan to neutralize the terrorist leader, Perrive. Vau proved his sniper skills in a clean kill, and then used Lord Mirdalan to retrieve the body (and datapad it held). They then returned to the greater battle, and were responsible for the neutralizing of a fleeing terrorist.

After the op's success, Atin chose to take his revenge. He attacked Vau and the two fought furiously, but it was broken up by Jedi General Bardan Jusik. The matter between Vau and Atin seemed to be resolved. When the time came for the team to go their separate ways, Vau and his strill returned to civilian life.

A few months after successful mission to Coruscant, Vau joined Delta Squad on Mygeeto where he used Delta to aid him in breaking into the Dressian Kiolsh Merchant Bank in order to steal back his inheritance and several other family items from his family's secure box. To hide which box was his target he stole from several other boxes, ascertaining more than fifty-three million credits worth in stolen goods, which except for what was rightfully his he gave to Skirata. Kal then changed his view about Vau. During the escape from the bank, Vau fell into a crevasse and later Skirata and Ordo rescued him in Aay'han.

Vau joined later Skirata and Ordo on Mandalore and was awaken one night when Etain went into labor. He was present for the birth of her and Darman's son Venku Skirata (later named Kad). During this time Vau confronted Skirata about the clones and wondered if he would have raised them all Mandalorian had they not been clones of Jango, something Skirata denied. Also during this time, Vau began to wonder what would become of Mird after he died after being asked how long Strills lived by Null-10. Vau expressed his desire to leave Mird with someone who would treat it much the same way as he did, and offered Mird to Jaing, who agreed to take it when Vau died.

After Etain returned with Delta and Omega Squad after a stalemate on Haurgab, Zey asked Vau to keep an eye on Skirata, since he was suspected of treason. But later on, Vau secretly told Skirata about Zey's being onto him and swore never to reveal anything behind his back.

During the following months, Vau was instrumental in helping Kal Skirata liberate adopted members of Clan Skirata from the Republic army. He helped Ordo free Jilka Zan Zentis, Besany Wennen's best friend, from prison after Gurlanin spies had framed her to throw suspicion off of Besany (Ordo's wife).

After the Battle of Coruscant, and Order 66, Vau joined Skirata in his escape and defection mission, taking many clones that had joined Skirata's Clan Skirata to Kyrimorut on Mandalore. Once there Vau and Skirata declared that their enmity was over, and they would start anew with a clean slate, and be the friends they knew they technically already were, because each of them saw how much the other cared about his troopers. Vau was described as being tall and cadaverous. He seemed to be sociopathic, showing no empathy or sympathy to his fellow sentients. It seemed that the only living thing he truly loves was his pet strill, Lord Mirdalan, whom he affectionately called "Mird." He kept his true emotions hidden to remain "strong" in front of his soldiers. He trained them to be strong so they would survive, but did not tell them directly that he cared for or loved them. However, Vau's sadistic behavior could be attributed to the harshness of his father; in effect, Vau possibly would have been less sociopathic had his father not frequently abused him.
